GET BACK ON THE JOB EARLY

The time draws near when we will all be back again. The time will soon be here when we will all be sitting around in the front room again enjoying one of those old-fashioned and delightful "bull sessions." As we realize that the time for our return is less than a month off, a big thrill runs through our veins and we just wish that short time would fly by.

We have every reason in the world to wish that it was September 20 and that the old wheels of the college had started to grind again, for this year is going to be a banner year for Phi Mu. This year is going to be one which will go down in the annals of Alpha Chi Rho at Lehigh as one of the greatest if not the greatest.

Phi Mu starts on the fifth year of its existence this fall. Let us see to it that she starts it off with a bang and keeps a-banging for the rest of the year. Let us get back early this fall and have everything in readiness when "Doc" Emery addresses his "Men of Lehigh" and presents our new president to us. And then let us keep everything in tip-top shape for nine months until the big year finally comes to a close.

Getting back to college early has been a precedent which has long been established at Phi Mu. It has been known all the years of the chapter and it has been adhered to faithfully by most of the members. Of course, there are a few who have always waited until the last minute to put in an appearance, but this year all that will be changed. Everyone is going to be back at least ten days before the opening day with lots of "pep" to get everything going right.

There is a lot to do before we are ready to sojourn up the hill to classes. The house is sadly disheveled after a summer's frolicking by the summer school Brothers and the lawn and grounds are far from neat because of lack of attention. Everything should be spick and span at least three days before the official opening of the University, and if it is to be such, we must all get back early.

So bear in mind, Brothers, the house will be wide open to receive anyone and everyone about September 10. Start packing now and then when that date rolls around, pick up that little grip and your old hat, and beat it back to Third and Wyandotte.

FATHERS' DAY

A very good idea was suggested to the chapter by one of the Brothers last winter, but we Brothers appeared to be so busy that we just didn't have time to carry it out. That idea was the holding of a Fathers' Day. Such a day would be an invocation for Phi Mu and would indeed be a benefit to the chapter.

The plan was to set aside some day in the college year in which Lehigh was doing some entertaining in the way of sports and then invite the fathers of the boys to come see Lehigh, the games, their sons, and most of all, the home life of their sons. Let the fathers come to Lehigh and see how their sons live in a real home, with all of the comforts of a home with the exception, possibly, of their own endeared family. Let the fathers see what their sons are getting from the big sacrifices that they are making, and thus make them realize that they are sacrificing for a good cause.

Let us keep this plan in mind next fall when we return to our work, and before we make too many other plans, set aside that day. A Fathers' Day at Phi Mu is a new thing, but it is a good one. We want our parents to see how we live and what we do while at college. And it wouldn't be a bad idea, either, to give the mothers the same opportunity a little later, by having a Mothers' Day. Let us keep a thought of this for our return.

INTERFRATERNITY SPORTS

Alpha Chi Rho has been one of the fraternities at Lehigh that has not risen to the front in interfraternity sports. Phi Mu has made very little progress in the tournaments that have been held, and was often one of the first teams to go out, no matter whether it was basket ball, bowling, pool, or what it was.

There is no reason why this should occur. Phi Mu has among its members just as good basket ball players, just as good bowlers and just as good cue artists as any other fraternity and we should be out there in the front. The real reason that Phi Mu ranks so low is because the Brothers do not take the proper interest.

Last year, when the bowling tournament started, we had two weeks to practice before the matches started. But there wasn't a man who touched a bowling ball before the afternoon of the match. Consequently, we lost by only 19 pins, when a little practice would have scored a win. Such was the case in the other sports, and with the exception of pool, A X P was dropped near the start.

Why can't we get one of those cups? Why can't we take a little interest and make a fight for the titles next year? We can, and we are going to, if every Brother takes the proper interest. Suppose we start when we get back next fall?

PHI MU LOSES OUT IN TOURNAMENTS

Once again Phi Mu failed to gain anything in the Interrraternity tournaments. Losing out in bowling in the opening match, she went into the other two tournaments with a little more spirit and succeeded in scoring several victories in basket ball and pool before she was defeated.

Phi Mu scored a victory over the Alpha Tau Omega five in the opening game by a 18-14 score. Then she met the Chi Psi basket ball team and was forced out of the tourney by the close score of 7-6. The Chi Psi team led by the score of 6-0 at the end of the first half. Then the Phi Mutes braced and evened the score at 6-6, only to lose the game when Ed Wilson scored a foul. The line-up of the Phi Mu team was as follows: Bush and Wardell, forwards; Gardy, center; Astarita and Walker, guards. Ted Underwood was in the game part of the time. The six points for Phi Mu were scored on two goals by Dinnie Bush and one by Astarita.

Freddie Dorton, Judy Gardy and Eagel Israel worked as the pool team and lasted until the semi-finals. Freddie and Judy earned a 2-1 victory over the A T O pair, and then Judy and Eagie scored a win over the Theta Delta Chi team by the same count. That brought Phi Mu to the semi-finals, where she was tumbled by the Sigma Phi Epsilon team by the score of 2-1, Dorton and Gardy representing Phi Mu.

The tournaments ended with Delta Tau Delta winning the title in the basket ball tourney and Sigma Chi defeating S. P. E. for the pool cup.

MRS. FLANAGAN PASSES AWAY

The Brothers of Phi Mu were sadly shocked and greatly grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Emma G. Flanagan, wife of F. P. Flanagan, '20. The announcement of her death came as a great shock to every one.

Mrs. Flanagan died in the early part of April as a result of typhoid fever, complicated with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan, at the time, were residing in West Virginia.

The Brothers of the Chapter take this opportunity to extend their heart-felt sympathy to Brother Pat in his late bereavement.

The Brothers are all interested when you announce your engagement, when you get married, when you change your position, when you move and when you do anything that is worth hearing about. When any of these things happen, let the editor know so everybody else can know. It won't take long to write it on a postal—try it!

SATURDAY NIGHT

(Sincere Apologies to De Mille)

ACT I.

The state of

Scene-Alpha Chi Rho House, Bethlehem, Pa.

TIME—Any Saturday night, very late. Characters—Played by themselves.

Curtain rises, showing Doc Underwood seated beside piano, making horrible faces and more horrible noises with a saxophone. Jim Hursh enters.

Doc: Well, big evening, I suppose, H-aaa-ach!

Jim: Huh! Colly certainly was rotten. Only had fifteen dances.

Doc resumes-playing (?)

Enter Asty Astarita and Goldie Wardell.

Asty: Hello, Doc-Jim.

Whitey: Gee! That girl we saw certainly was a knockout, wasn't she? Wonder if she goes to B-thorpe?

(Leaves for regions of eternal cosmetics).

Jim: What'd you do to-night? Didn't you go to the brawl out at B-thorpe?

Asty: No---

Interrupted by the appearance of Ted Underwood and Larry Kingham, both of whom seem rather excited. Larry: Whew! Certainly were some babies there—Chee Whiz!

Jim: Did you go to B-thorpe?

Ted: Yeah! Ha—ha—aaaa-uh! Ole Chile Bean certainly put one over on Larry—ha-ha-aaa-uh—she only saved him one dance—ha-ha-ha—all his others were with terrible lookin' dames that couldn't dance any more than—

Enter Fred Dorton and Dixie Walker.

Fred: Hey, Walker, the next time you make a date for me it'll be when I ain't looking.

Dix: Wattsa matter? I thought you were having a good time—you know, my little pal said to me, "Freddy and Dotty seem to like each other"—

Asty: Off that stuff, Bohunk! I've only been out on a date with you once, but that's enough.

Ted: Ha-ha-aaaa-aaaa-uh!

Doc: Hey, Ted, we're all right here!

Ted, as usual, immediately subdues his mirth. Asty and Jim begin a duet on some banjoes and are accompanied on the piano by Ted, Doc, in despair, puts away his sax for the night.

Enter Judy Gardy and Kusel Kramer.

Larry: Well, well, how are the financiers tonight?

Fred: You fellows been at it again?

Kusel: Sure! What's wrong—you fellows play pinochle, don't you—or you try to!

Asty (ceasing a moment): Don't get sore, Q. Stick that dollar you lost on somebody's bill.

Doc: Yea, on mine, I guess!

Ted: Better not put it on mine.

Kusel: Aw, you guys are worse than Larkin—hey, Doc, did you hear what I said to him yesterday? Oh, yeah, I told you that at dinner, didn't I?

Charlie Israel and Hop Todd come down from upstairs, the latter burdened with a big fat letter for some place in Jersey.

Charlie: Anybody going down down? Hop and I are going to mail letters.

Hop: Hey, Judy, going to have anything decent to eat tomorrow?

Judy (on his way to kitchen): Generally do, Hop. I'll take a look now. (Leaves for kitchen).

Rod Hauser hurries down the steps and into the room.

Rod: Anybody want any tickets for the Mustard and Cheese show? Hey, fellows, don't forget to vote for me at the election. Gee, I'm busy, I'll have to get back to work. (Exits hurriedly.)

Doc: Well, I'm going to bed. Who's coming?

Judy re-enters.

Judy: What's that, Doc, an-

Asty: There you go-off that stuff.

Entire company prepares to leave for upper regions.

ACT II.

Scene-Same as Act I.

TIME—Same Saturday night—much later.

CHARACTER-Played by himself.

Curtain rises, showing room in darkness. A figure passes in door. Hall Hight is turned on, disclosing Snorkey Thomas, who immediately proceeds upstairs and to bed, because there is no other place left to go.

EVENTS OF A SUMMER

Little Freddie Dorton divided his summer into two equal parts. He says himself that the first half was the better. He writes that he couldn't tell in a week and a half what he did the first half of his vacation. He was down on the Magothy River (somewhere in that State of Maryland) and she was only 600 yards away from him. (We think Babcock is a pretty poor judge of distance.) That speaks for itself, he says. The other six weeks Freddie spent in Bethlehem, attending summer school.

The Underwood Brothers sold a number of typewriters this summer, became very rich, and are now in possession of a "tin Lizzie," which they use continually for transportation. Both are located at Brielle, N. J., and between orchestra engagements, they sail out on the bay in a sail-boat, which is "all their own" for the summer. Outside of that, they don't do anything but eat and sleep. "Doc" has continued to reduce by eating plenty of bread, butter and, especially, sugar, while it is reported that Ted is being sought after by pump officials from New York to commercialize his "suction laugh."

Communications to Allentown in search of Brother Rod Hauser have failed to bring any results. We expected as much. Between putting nails in shoes, spending his spare time with his fiancee, and extensive auto tours to Lebanon, Rod doesn't have any time to do anything else. But you know how Rod is. If he isn't busy, he isn't happy. Just for the information of the Brothers, it might be said that it has been learned that he has planned to install a number of mechanical instruments on his desk next year in order to help transact all his business.

Larry Kingham has been spending his summer by performing his usual duty—sitting down. He says that he isn't tired a bit after it, either, like he used to be at school. Well, anyway, being a "gentleman of leisure" isn't so bad. Larry's one ambition was to be champion in tennis at the playgrounds; so, one afternoon, he and another fellow got up a tournament and Larry won, after beating the other two guys. Inspired, he did excellently a little later by staying until the third round at the Belmar Country Club.

Brother Charlie Israel would have us believe that he has put in a very quiet summer. Well, some people call it "quiet" and others say it is just keeping things covered up. But we don't intend to give away any secrets, except to say that some people get pretty frisky when they get in Harrisburg. Charlie spent the first part of his summer attending Lehigh, but after getting his fill of that for once in his life, he repaired to Harrisburg as soon as the six weeks were up. Therein lies the secret.

Brother Judy Gardy has done some work this summer. He admits it. Convinced that he will make himself a newspaperman some day, he begged a job from the BUCKS COUNTY DAILY NEWS, and loafed in the office all summer. Getting tired of loafing so much, he added tutoring to his duty and during the last six weeks, spent three hours a day trying to drill a little knowledge in high school kids' heads. Then beside that he acted as a movie manager for a couple of weeks and kept himself busy at night—tending to some private business.

Whitey Wardell has been spending his summer at Monmouth Beach, N. J., and has been winning the pretty smiles of the fair damsels with all regularity. Whitey doesn't say so himself, but it was learned from other sources that he has discovered several new concoctions. It was thought at first that he had been confering with Johnny Timmons, but this was emphatically denied by the Snow Hill merchant, saying that he did not ever handle cosmetics. We are inclined to believe that John-I is right and that Whitey is still the "only one in captivity."

Brother Hop Todd located himself in Greenwich, Conn., for the summer and for the first time in his life started on the path of a school teacher. He had charge of a group of youngsters in the afternoon and in the morning did some private tutoring. Hop doesn't please us very much when he informs us that he is not going to return to Lehigh, but will spend the next year working and attending Columbia. We are hoping that by the time Lehigh opens its doors he will have changed his mind and will be back with the rest of us.

The stranger, Ike Cook, as near as we can tell, has dropped off the map. A letter addressed to his home in Bethlehem brought no answer and so we are at present fearing for his safety. Knowing Ike's ability as a runner, we are inclined to believe that he may have attempted to run around the world during the summer in order to keep in shape. Although we know nothing of him, we hope that he is all right and that we will see him next fall at Lehigh.

Snorkey Thomas has surely enjoyed his summer. He has had at least two trips that many of us envy him for. First of all, according to reports, he made that famous automobile tour with a group of miners through the northern states and Canada, an opportunity that only a few of us get. There are no definite reports as to what Snork did in Canada, but—three guesses—the first two don't count. Then Tommy went down to the Shore on a week-end party with—Nuff sed!

It is a pretty hard task to tell what Kusel Kramer has been doing all summer. News came from the shore that "Q" just works at night, which is quite easy to believe. This news is supplemented with the statement that the K. O. plays about three times a week along the coast and Ku is present on each occasion. Kusel was also along when the orchestra enjoyed a three-day outing in Ed Gould's new car. Details are lacking on the affair, just a "three-day revelvie," according to the latest account.

Asty informs us that he has been doing a good many things this summer. He has been swimming, fishing, diving, casting, basking and a lot of other things ending in "ing." We can't list them all, or rather, we're not allowed to. Francis tells us that he can't tell everything that happens in a summer resort. Strange, isn't it? Asty doesn't want it known, we think, because he didn't tell us, but he has been just an "ordinary chauffeur" part of the summer. Other time has been spent in taking honors in diving events.

Lanky Jim Hursh has made his home address Third and Wyandotte streets this past summer. Slim was sure that he wasn't going to miss a thing at Lehigh as long as he was enrolled as a student and so prepared his camp for the summer. One trip to Newville by train and numerous trips in a Ford sedan belonging to a young lady in Allentown, constituted Jim's vacation traveling. (We did fail to mention that the Allentown cars carried Phi Mu's bean pole half-to and back again on many evenings.)

Dixie Walker has been doing a little bit of everything this summer. When college was over last June, Dixie decided that he wanted to go home, but he hadn't been there very long before he felt a yearning for Bethlehem and his "li'le pal." So back to Bethlehem he came and got a job at the steel plant. Then somebody in Allentown offered him a job playing ball and he went after it like a frog after flies. Since then Dix has been combining his work with a successful season as a pitcher.

Phi Mu is as anxious as ever to get that 100 per cent life suoscription to the "GARNET AND WHITE." Nearly all of the residents are life members, so let the graduates come through. If it has slipped your mind, Brother Callaghan is waiting in Brooklyn, for your check. He'll be glad to put your name on the list. Send your check now, tomorrow you'll have to do something else.

THOSE FOUR WHO LEFT US

We have reserved some space here to tell about those members of Alpha Chi Rho who will not return to the chapter this fall. They are the ones who got their "sheepskins" and are now going on their way rejoicing.

This year we again had four men leave us. It is not saying too much when we say that they stand high in the chapter. They were four good, faithful soldiers and every spare minute they had they devoted to the betterment of Phi Mu. No more could be asked of them than what they gave. We hope that this fall we will take in some more real men of their type.

DONALD MOYER BUSH, Ch. E.

Bethlehem, Pa.

Known as "Dinnie," "Din" and "Boosh"

Dinnie vas already a pig poy when he don already decide to come to Levi. Yes, Dinnie is from that section, although now he finds his home in Bethlehem. Originally, Din resided at Glenside, but after he had been in college a year, his family decided to move to Bethlehem. Hence Dinnie had to move, too. Din was a scholar and spent a lot of his time on his books, but no matter how busy he was, he always had time to come down to the house and join in a good "bull session." Dinnie's wit and his willingness to aid in anything will be long remembered at Phi Mu.

LESLIE LUNGREN DREW, B. S.

Asbury Park, N. J.

Known as "Chip," "Les" and "Runt."

"By the sea, by the sea, that's the place I want to be!" introducing that famous character, Leslie L. Drew. Being so small that he was once mistaken for one of the Brothers' sons, Chippy ginds consolation in the fact that sometimes "good goods" come in small packages. In this case, we guess we'll have to admit it. Chip was Phi Mu's "social animal" and he played his part well, getting elected to everything possible. Then, too, Chip found time to join in sports, earn managerships, and other college things. His pleasing personality and untiring efforts will get him a long way.

FIELDER ISRAEL, Ch. E.

Laurel, Md.

Known as "Eagle" "F" and "Fi"

Laurel, Maryland, produced this man for Phi Mu. Back in the fall of 1917, little Eagle followed his brother, Phil, to Baltimore, Philadelphia and thence to Bethlehem, and enrolled as a meek freshman in Lehigh. Eagle soon learned the ropes of Lehigh, Bethlehem, and even Allentown, and began at once to make his climb to the top. "F" did his work well in the Chemical Engineering course, and on the side, had time to dip his hands in the coffers of the BROWN AND WHITE. We shall miss Eagle, for he was ever present with his smile, dimples and helping hand.

College Activities: Business Manager of the BROWN AND WHITE (4); Circulation Manager of the BROWN AND WHITE (3); Assistant Business Manager of the BROWN AND WHITE (2); Track squad (1, 2); Secretary-Treasurer of St. Paul's Society (2); Interfraternity Council (3, 4); Cotillion, Pi Delta Epsilon.

CHARLES JOHN HENRY JAGELS, JR., B. A. New York City. Known as "Jake" and "Charlie."

Closing his eyes and placing his finger on the map of eastern United States was the way Jake found out he was coming to Lehigh. He didn't know exactly where he wanted to go, but knowing how lucky he was, he chose this method of selecting his college. It is a fact that Charlie found the right place, for he just fitted in the workings of Lehigh and most of all, Phi Mu. Jake's accomplishments are too long to list, his versatility is too wonderful to describe and his personality is too pleasing to lose. May he find time to visit us often.

GRADUATE GLEANINGS

Little Chippy Drew, "Baldy" Stewart's echo, has been acting as Uncle Sam's right hand man in the P. O. at Asbury Park this summer and is reported to have landed a good job in New York or somewhere, starting this fall.

Eddie Gould, between jobs with the famous Knickerbocker Orchestra which has spread Alpha Chi Rho's fame all over the New Jersey Coast, figures out the best way for other people to invest their money so that they make more (?) money. In plain words, Eddie works for John Moody & Co., Investors' Service.

Pat Flanagan and Newt Cox cast off from Roanoke July 1 and visited all the nooks and crannies of Maryland, Delaware, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, etc. They toured and visited all summer—even getting as far north as Asbury Park and Bethlehem. It is reported that they laid waste the whole coast of New Jersey in their careless careful course.

Fielder Israel has been resting his bones in Laurel almost all summer—some rest—but seems to have the "dope" on almost every body else in the Chapter.

Tow Phipps seems to be located permanently out in Chicago except when he comes East every week-end or so. He spent his vacation between Willow Grove Park and Hatboro.

Dinnie Bush has been taking the Summer Course at Bethlehem Steel when not otherwise occupied in other more important matters. Ike is now a valuable part of the International Motor Co. (Mfgs. Mack Trucks) in Allentown, and writes "still single and feel like a 15 year old—no prospects." As a P. S. he adds that Boo Cook is STILL carrying on amongst the painted sirens. What has this World come to?

Bill Kantner's address is Box 35, Ardsley, Pa.

Vic writes from Niagara Falls, that Mecca of the Honeymooners, that he is "still a bachelor, position is the same, has seen Frank Magee only, no chance to gossip."

Frank (Chet) Chesterman's reply is either a promise or a threat, whichever you please, "No news at all now, but by fall I think I will be able to tell you some." To the best of our knowledge and belief Miss Dorothy Welsh is scheduled to teach in Doylestown this winter.

Slim Rau, from New Mexico, makes a clean breast of it, "Not married, not engaged, have no babies (why should he?), and have not advanced except in age."

Hank Shockley's contribution from Virginia gives no forecast on the hair crop but he promises to spend a few days in Bethlehem this year, at House Party if possible. Look out ye Men of Lehigh!

"Nothing new"—Bob Wieseman, (Editor's Note—Bob doesn't own quite all of Schenectady, yet).

Charles Samuel Schubert left the Coal Fields a little after July

1 and is superintending the preliminary work for a quarry and sand plant for the Clinchfield Sand and Feldspar Co., of Baltimore, to be located at Cassard, Va. He expects to start REAL work in about a month. He mentions nothing about "sitting up with sick friends" or other miscellaneous amusements.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Morgan Shaeffer have recently purchased a new home on the Allentown Pike (Hanover Boulevard). Shaef had the misfortune to get on the wrong end of a 600-volt charge with the result of a badly burnt hand and eyes. His condition now is much improved, his eyes being O. K. and his hand healing handily.

Marcus Armstrong has gotten a good job in the N. Y. office of the Westinghouse Electric Co. Mark is "agin" Daylight Saving because it cuts down his time for "sleuthing" around the big city.

One of the Brothers "lets the cat out of the bag," Colonel Bottomley has been promoted to Assistant Engineer, also going pretty strong with a certain young lady in Athens, Ga. It is pretty hard to believe—not the promotion but the "going."

We must change Jake Reitzel's address to 18 Halstead St., East Orange, N. J., because we have had it wrong 7 times now. No news from Jake except that the "customary two weeks is all a thing of the past." Jake means he has had his vacation.

Old "Doc" Fretz spent the summer with the Del. & Atlantic Tel. & Tel. Co., at Trenton; will return to Swarthmore and finish next June. Doc says he expects to get up for the Lehigh-Lafayette fracas and get some of the old Lehigh spirit (s). Harry Rote's ghost will walk again.

"Al" Gardy has resigned his position as Advertising Manager and Business Manager of he BUCKS COUNTY DAILY NEWS and has opened an office in the Hart Building, Doylestown, Pa., under the pretentious cognomen of J. A. GARDY ADVERTISING SERVICE. One of his first non-cash customers (i. e. visitors) was Leon Apple Fritchman of Mixed Concrete fame. Fritch stopped by in his car (?) and also threatens of things to happen in the fall. Fritch also passed along the dope on the Barthold Brothers. Bill has finished his Law Course at Fair Harvard and is connected with some Municipal Lawyers (whatever they are) in Bethlehem. Al Barthold has sailed or will sail to Europe to teach or study or something.

Fords and Fordsons and the selling thereof, keep Bernie Bernhard's attention at Ambler, Pa.,—not very far from Doylestown, if you know where that is.

Charles John Henry Jagels, Jr., of K. O. fame, cut his big toe on "some glass" down in New Jersey somewhere. That's the only thing of any importance Jake has done all summer except eat, sleep, bathe and be merry. Notice we did not locate definitely the base of his operations.

Walt Woolley is still operating the Monterey Pharmacy and filling prescriptions for red-nosed invalids despite the efforts of "Izzy" Einstein.

Bill Huggins is helping the St. Clair Paper Company's mill at Deferiet, N. Y., turn out about 170 tons of paper (?). Bill is not president yet but there will be a Director's Meeting very soon now and he has hopes. In the interim he is putting in time in one of the offices.

Walter Greacen, 3d, reports that he is employed by the Public Service Electric Co., Newark, N. J., in the Testing Laboratory. He doesn't say what he is testing.

. Benny Franklin Hantz speaks up boldly that he has a young daughter, Phyllis Elizabeth, aged ten months. Lots of the Brothers didn't even know Benny was married. He doesn't state where he works during the day, but we imagine he is a "floor walker" and a "bottler" when he is home.

Big George Weber, the man who originated the tale about "The Boy From Liepersville," is employed by Howard Weber. M. D., as assistant superintendent of oil production in the N. W. extension to the Burkburnett, Texas, field. George says it has been "hot and DRY in Texas this summer."

Wallie Fry, in addition to "bawling out" the Graduate Secretary-Treasurer for what seems to be an error, gives the information that he is with and has been with for some time, the Creditors' National Clearing House, Inc., Newark, N. J. You will find his proper address in the directory.

Arthur and Harry Kostenbauder are fighting it out up in the coal regions. A nice long letter from Harry tells the news of his wedding (published elsewhere in this issue), and says he is with the W. R. McTurk Coal Company, Girardville, Pa., and has been doing a little of everything since the shut-down. Art has been shipping for the D. B. Wentz Co., at Raven Run. Since the shut-down he has been timbering in the mines and was watchman for a few weeks.

Al Johnson has spent the summer in West Hartford doing "odd jobs" and will return to Bethlehem to take re-exams in an effort to re-enter college this fall.

Members of the graduate chapter should send news for "MUSINGS" and the "GARNET AND WHITE" to Brother J. A. Gardy at Doylestown, Pa. For "MUSINGS" the items should reach him by January 15, May 1, August 1 and November 1. The dates for the other news are February 10, August 10, October 10 and December 10. He's pretty busy like everybody else, so don't wait for a notice from him. When you hear something, write it on a card and sent it right away. Your news might be the best. Just a postal will do if you haven't time to pen a letter,

HITCHED AND NEAR HITCHED

The Brothers are getting the knot tied so quickly and in such great numbers that it is very hard to keep track of them. Since the last issue of "MUSINGS," two Brothers have "jumped overboard" into "the sea of matrimony," two others have announced their intentions of doing so and two others report that they became partners sometime ago, but failed to let anyone know about it.

First and foremost to be mentioned is the curly-haired Cliff Kniley. C. Leroy Price sneaked off from school one day and headed for Schneetady, N. Y., where he was soon after married to Miss Helen Schadt, of Allentown, Pa. The ceremony was performed sometime in May and they are reported to be now living in Poughkeepsie, N. Y. Miss Schadt was formerly a nurse in the St. Luke's Hospital, Bethlehem.

The most recent wedding was that of Buck Howser to Miss Celeste M. Lovell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClellan Lovell, of Baltimore, Md. We suspected that Buck would get hitched pretty soon and weren't very much surprised. The knot was tied in Baltimore on June 29, 1922.

The other two weddings are those of Brothers Harry Kostenbauder and Brad Hooper. We couldn't get any "dope" on Brad's great occasion except that it was on July 9, 1921. According to that, Brad has been a husband for over a year. Harry Kostenbauder tells us that he was married on November 3, 1921. He married a Miss Cathryn Barr, daughter of A. C. Barr, of Wilburton, Pa. The wedding took place at Sunbury, Pa., and the happy couple are now residing at Ashland, Pa.

Now we come to those two who have decided to get married, but haven't set the day as yet. One of them is Brother Jake Jagels, who just completed his final year at Lehigh. Jake celebrated this occasion by having his engagement to Miss Helen B. LaVake announced. Miss LaVake is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron E. LaVake, of Princeton, N. J., and is well known at the Phi Mu chapter house.

The other one to take the eventful step was Brother Hop Todd. Arnold didn't tell the Brothers about it, but last Spring he took his usual trip for the week-end, but this time directed himself to Doylestown, where his sister, Betty, held a tea, in order that his engagement to Miss Isabel Downes might be announced. Miss Downes is a resident of Bloomfield, N. J.

EVERYBODY INVITED

Brother Leon Apple Fritchman, '18, sends word that he is going to get the knot tied on October 14 in Medford, N. J., where his fiancee, Miss Mildred Reeve, has her home. He has invited the Brothers by writing as follows: "All Brethern of Phi Mu most cordially invited. Ceremony at 6 P. M. Bring your cans and old shoes!"

SOMETHING NEW AND WELCOME

The chapter has a new animal in its possession. It isn't like any other animal, but it is more welcome than any animal which the chapter could have. That animal is the "Phi Mule."

Early last spring, industrious and illustrious Freddie Dorton prepared for the typing fingers of his assistant, J. S. Hursh, a humorous manuscript in the form of a newspaper. The affair was welcome, for it filled a wide gap in the chapter. "Phi Mule" was something which was lacking and which the chapter had always needed.

"Phi Mule" followed closely to its name by giving "kicks" when they were needed, but also remembered to give credit where credit was due. Besides these things, the little publication provided the Brothers with a little bit of wit and funny sayings that made its advent always a pleasure. "Phi Mule" is needed and it is hoped that it will be with us next year with a bright and cheery issue to start off the fall term.

THE NEW PRESIDENT

For two years Lehigh has been without a head, but this fall, when the students crowd back to the old college, there will be a leader. That man will be Dr. Charles Russ Richards, formerly dean of the College of Engineering of the University of Illinois. A new president at Lehigh means a lot of things. First of all, it means that the Lehigh students have a leader which is something big with which to start.

Next, it means that Lehigh is going to undergo a change in the next year, which has been needed for a long time. Doctor Richards is a modern man with modern ideas and after a year of his reign, Lehigh will show the good results. With the advent of the new president a new and prosperous year is expected.

LOOK FOR IT IN THE FALL

Many of the Brothers have been under the impression that they have been cheated every fall when it comes time for the Lafayette football game and there is no "MUSINGS" for them to read. These Brothers labor under a false impression for never has there existed a "MUSINGS" at this time of the year. The publication of "MUSINGS" is scheduled to occur three times a year, August, February and May. The other time is only a "hope" and not a reality.

This year, however, the Brothers are not going to look in vain. It is the aim of the present board to publish a "MUSINGS" in November to be "mused over" by the Brothers at the Lafayette game. The only thing which will hinder the fulfillment of this idea is finances. Let us hope that the delinquent Brothers will come through with their dues and let this project come through.

BIRTH

Brother B. Frank Hantz, '19, writes us that he has a tenmonths-old daughter and her name is Phyllis Elizabeth Hantz. Once again we Brothers have a niece, although we are a little late knowing about it, Benny!
